Subject: 2012-2013 Commonwealth of Massachusetts Suffolk Fellowship Program for Excellence in Public Administration

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts in conjunction with Suffolk University offers Executive Branch managers the opportunity to attend the University's Frank Sawyer School of Management, Master in Public Administration Program for the academic year 2012-2013 at no cost as a Suffolk Fellow. Suffolk Fellows receive full tuition for the academic year and receive full salary while attending the MPA program, and will maintain his or her job on a half-time basis, arranging a work schedule of 18.75 hours within their agency's normal hours of operation.

Applicants for the fellowship program must:

- Occupy a full time Executive Branch position in an active status
- Be paid from the AA subsidiary
- Be classified in a management or professional position or be a Massachusetts State Police Department employee classified as Sergeant or above

Additional eligibility and selection criteria, instructions, and the application processes are detailed in the Suffolk Fellowship application. To access the application go to:
